Texas State Historical Association, Austin, Texas, 2002. Hardcover. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. Signed on the half-title page by all three authors; not personalized to anyone. The definitive story of one of the most significant and colorful moments in Texas history. An exhaustively researched book that focuses on the Lucas Gusher in Beaumont in 1901, as well as the events leading up to it and the immediate aftermath. It's all here, after the gusher came in, life would never be the same. A must have in an energy history library or for anyone interested in energy history in the United States. Volume itself has brown cloth covers with sharp black lettering on the spine. Dust jacket is protected in an archival quality cover. A very nice, signed by all three authors, copy; available for immediate shipment, carefully packed and shipped in a box. Signed by All Three Authors.
